3. The claim 9 is allowable over the prior art of record because the teachings of the references taken as a whole do not show or render obvious the combination set forth, including: (1) Initiating the dithering of the first nip roller to repeatedly step the edge of the sheet engaged by the first nip roller first rearward and then forward, each rearward and forward step resulting in a redetection of the first of the fiducial marks.
4. The claim 11 is allowable over the prior art of record because the teachings of the references taken as a whole do not show or render obvious the combination set forth, including: (1) A controller acting responsive to the detection of a first position locator by the first sensor to dither the first nip roller by alternately stepping the first nip
